Ombudsman Urges Disability Inclusion at International Webinar in Karachi

KARACHI: The Wafaqi Mohtasib (Ombudsman) of Pakistan and President of the Asian Ombudsman Association (AOA), Ejaz Ahmad Qureshi, has said that discrimination against persons with disabilities is a violation of the inherent dignity and worth of the human person. He stressed the importance of mainstreaming disability issues as an integral part of strategies for sustainable development. He was inaugurating a Webinar on the role of ombudsman institutions in protecting the rights of persons with disabilities in the context of corporate responsibility, organized under the auspices of the Asian Ombudsman Association (AOA). The event coincided with the UN-designated International Day of Persons with Disabilities, observed globally on December 3. The webinar was also addressed by Ms. Sabina Aliyeva, Commissioner for Human Rights in Azerbaijan, along with expert presentations on various aspects of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (2006). Highlighting the role of ombudsman institutions in promoting human rights and good governance, Mr. Qureshi said that people are the biggest stakeholders and their legitimate interests must be protected. He emphasized that business and industrial circles should remain mindful of their corporate social responsibility, ensuring fairness, equality, and non-discrimination in all activities. The webinar was attended by a large number of human rights practitioners, academia, civil society representatives, and international participants from member institutions of the 47-member Asian Ombudsman Association, including Azerbaijan, Bahrain, China, Hong Kong, Iran, Indonesia, Japan, Türkiye, and Uzbekistan.
