

DAWN

DAWN ISLAMABAD, WEDNESDAY AUGUST 5, 2020

Ombudsman seeks report on cyber crimes against children

By Our Staff Reporter

ISLAMABAD: Federal Ombudsman Syed Tahir Shahbaz has asked National Child Commissioner (NCC) Ejaz Ahmed Qureshi to prepare a report on cyber crimes against children along with a plan of action by taking stakeholders on board.

The ombudsman was chairing a meeting held to review progress on special initiatives. Senior law adviser Hafiz Ahsaan

Ahmed Khokhar briefed the ombudsman on the progress of prison reforms.

He said six quarterly progress reports had been submitted to the Supreme Court and the seventh one was in progress.

He said Sindh has repealed the outdated prison laws and improved its parole system to control crowding in jails whereas the other three provinces are working on it.

The ombudsman asked to finalise the automation system of all jails with criminal justice departments at the earliest and expedite work on providing missing facilities in jails such as proper seating arrangements for visitors, clean drinking water and sufficient number of toilets.

He said filling of vacant posts of doctors and paramedical staff in jails should also be ensured at the earliest.

The ombudsman also directed to speed up the construction of a jail in Islamabad and get its monthly progress report from the Ministry of Interior. He directed the officials concerned to finalise the seventh quarterly implementation report by August 15 and appoint special commissioners for pension and housing sector to remove obstacles in the areas.

He said as the intensity of Covid-19 pandemic has decreased, the outreach complaint resolution (OCR) programme should be ensured to provide justice to complainants at their doorsteps.

He was informed that more than 60,000 complaints had been disposed of in six months of the current year.

NCC asked to make study report on cyber crime against children

OUR STAFF REPORTER
ISLAMABAD

Federal Ombudsman Syed Tahir Shahbaz has asked the National Child Commissioner (NCC) to prepare a study report on cyber crime against children and suggest plan of action by taking on board FIA, Ministry of IT and other stake holders.

He was chairing a high-level meeting to review progress on special initiatives. Senior Adviser Law Hafiz Ahsaan Ahmed Khokhar briefed the Federal Ombudsman on progress of prison reforms initiatives.

Speaking on the occasion, he said that 6 quarterly progress reports had been submitted in the Supreme Court and seventh report was in progress. He said the Sindh government had repealed the outdated prison laws and improved their parole system to control overcrowding in jails, whereas other three provinces were in working process.

The Ombudsman asked the concerned authorities to finalize automation system of all jails with all criminal justice departments at the earliest and show more progress on missing facilities in jails as proper sitting arrangements of inmates' visitors, provision of clean drinking water and sufficient number of toilets.

He said filling of vacant posts of doctors and paramedical staff in jails should be ensured at the earliest. He also directed the authorities concerned to speed up construction of jail in Islamabad and get its monthly progress report from the Ministry of Interior.

The Ombudsman directed to finalize the 7th quarterly implementation report by 15th August.

BUSINESS RECORDER

Founded by M.A. Zuberi

Aug 05, 2020

BR – e-Paper August 05, 2020 National News

Ombudsman calls for report on cyber crimes against children

August 05, 2020

RECORDER

REPORT

ISLAMABAD: The Federal Ombudsman, Syed Tahir Shahbaz, has asked the National Child Commissioner (NCC), Ejaz Ahmed Qureshi, to prepare a report on cyber crimes against children and suggest plan of action by taking on board FIA, ministry of IT and other stakeholders. He was chairing a meeting to review progress on special initiatives here on Tuesday. Senior Adviser on Law Hafiz Ahsaan Ahmed Khokhar briefed the federal ombudsman on progress in prison reforms initiatives. He said that 6 quarterly progress reports have been submitted in the Supreme Court and seventh report is in progress. He said that Sindh has repealed the outdated prison laws and improved their parole system to control overcrowding in jails whereas the other three provinces' work is in process. The ombudsman asked to finalize the automation system of all jails with all criminal justice departments at the earliest and show more progress on missing facilities in jails e.g. proper sitting arrangements for visitors, provision of clean drinking water and sufficient number of toilets. He said that filling of vacant posts of doctors and paramedical staff in jails be ensured at the earliest. He also directed to speed up progress on construction of jail in Islamabad and get its monthly progress report from the ministry of interior. The ombudsman directed to finalize the 7th quarterly implementation report by 15th August. He directed to appoint special commissioners for pension and housing sector to remove obstacles in these areas. He said that now the density of corona pandemic has come down, therefore, directed to reactivate the Outreach Complaint Resolution (OCR) Programme to provide justice at the doorstep of complainants. He was informed that more than 60,000 complaints have been disposed of in six months.

'We can never tell what is in store for us.'

- Henry S. Truman

Pakistan OBSERVER

Eyes & Ears of Pakistan

Founded by ZAFID MALIK (1983-2003)

Widely read and trusted Daily

73
YEARS
PAKISTAN

India now 'Rajnagar', no more secular country. Rashed

Page 08

CJP said 'let not solve those responsible for AFS. Imran

Page 09

High time to realize targets to Pakistan's Masood

Page 08

CCO commits to ensure the Justice

Page 08

Ayesha Omar opens up about being a sexual assault survivor to Rose McGowan

Page 11

Islamabad

Simultaneously published from Karachi | Lahore | Faisalabad

Vol. 2022 Issue 146 Regd. No. 111

12 Pages + 4

Price Rs. 22.00

Wednesday Zuhjeh 14, 1441 | August 31, 2022

Ombudsman reviews progress on special initiatives

ZUBAIR QURESHI

Federal Ombudsman (FO) Syed Tahir Shahbaz has asked the National Child Commissioner (NCC) Ejaz Ahmed Qureshi to make a study report on cybercrimes against children and suggest a plan of action by taking on board to FIA, Ministry of IT and other stakeholders.

The FO was chairing a high-level meeting to review progress on Special Initiatives.

Senior Adviser Law Hafiz Ahsaan Ahmed Khokhar briefed the Federal Ombudsman on progress of prison reforms initiatives.

He said that six quarterly progress reports have been submitted in the Supreme Court and the 7th seventh report was in progress.

He said that the Sindh

province had repealed the outdated prison laws and improved their parole system to control overcrowding in jails, whereas the other three provinces are in the working process.

The Ombudsman asked to finalize the automation system of all jails with all criminal justice departments at the earliest and show more progress on missing facilities in jails e.g. proper sitting arrangements of inmate visitors, provision of clean drinking water and sufficient number of toilets.

He said that filling of vacant posts of doctors and paramedical staff in jails will be ensured at the earliest. He also directed to speed up the progress on construction of jail in Islamabad and get its monthly progress report from the Ministry of Interior.

The Ombudsman directed to finalize the 7th quarterly implementation report by 15th August. He directed the appointment of Special Commissioners for the Pension and Housing Sector to remove obstacles in these areas.

He said the density of corona pandemic has come down, therefore, directed to reactivate the Outreach Complaint Resolution (OCR) Programme to provide justice at the doorstep of complainants.

Cricket stars throw their weight behind
Adar Ais team

Int'l community to break its criminal silence and take notice of the grave human rights violations in occupied Kashmir

Ombudsman asked to make study report on cyber crimes against children

by OUR CORRESPONDENT

ISLAMABAD

The Federal Ombudsman Syed Tahir Shahbaz has asked the National Child Commissioner (NCC) Mr. Ejaz Ahmed Qureshi to make a study report on cyber crimes against children and suggest plan of action by taking on board to FIA, Ministry of IT and other stakeholders. He was chairing a high level meeting to review progress on Special Initiatives.

Senior Adviser Law Hafiz Ahsaan Ahmed Khokhar briefed the Federal Ombudsman on progress of prison reforms initiatives. He said that 06 quarterly progress reports have been submitted in the Supreme Court and seventh report is in progress. He said that the Sindh has repealed the outdated prison laws and improved their parole system to control overcrowding in jails, whereas the other three provinces are in working process.

The Ombudsman asked to finalize the automation system of all jails with all criminal justice departments at the earliest and show more progress on missing facilities in jails e.g. proper sitting arrangements of inmate visitors, provision of clean drinking water and sufficient number of toilets. He said that filling of vacant posts of doctors and paramedical staff in jails be ensured at the earliest.